Charles A. Russ, jr. Supervisor, Dies Mon.

CHARLES A. RUSS, JR.

Final rites took place Wednesday for Charles Albert Russ, Jr., 57, of Pearl River, Beat 1 member of the Hancock County board of supervisors, who succumbed at 4 p.m. Monday at Hancock General Hospital.

Services were from the home with burial in the Murphy Cemetery at Napoleon. Rev. T. J. Wharton, pastor of Pineville Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Wilmon Fordam, pastor of Petal Baptist Church, officiated.

Mr. Russ was first appointed to the board of supervisors to fill the unexpired term of the late Joe Jones and was reelected twice to full four-year terms. Born Feb. 4, 1905, in New Orleans, he resided in Pearl River most of his life and operated a sawmill there.

He underwent surgery three weeks ago at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans and was transferred here Aug. 18 but never fully regained consciousness.

Surviving are the widow, three daughters, Miss Shannon Russ of Pearl River, Mrs. Evelyn Ward of Long Beach, Mrs. Sally Lackey of West Covina, Calif.; two sons, C. A. Russ, III, and Jimmy Russ, both of Rt. 1, Long Beach; two brothers, Harry Russ of Poplarville, Rev. John Russ, pastor of Laddonia, Me., Presbyterian Church; five sisters, Mrs. Lela Cassiday, Port Arthur, Texas; Mrs. Katherine Leguay, Bogalusa, La.; Mrs. Helen Murphy, Mrs. Nellie Maxwell, Mrs. Carrie Jones; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russ, Sr., all of Long Beach, and four grandchildren.

Mr. Russ was elected vice president of the present board of supervisors at its reorganization three years ago. It was during his term as a supervisor that the new hospital was constructed.

How To Call For Rescue in Choppy Waters

Sister Frances and five campers visiting St. Margaret's Daughters Home were towed to safety late Sunday afternoon after their small speed hull had run out of fuel about one-half mile offshore.

City patrolman Latham Garriga responding to a call from a Beach Blvd. resident, heard voices calling for help about 6:30 p.m. as he drove along the seawall. He contacted St. Stanislaus College and Brothers Roger, Roman and Angelo, guided by the spotlight from Garriga's patrol car, located the boat tossing about in turbulent water and towed it to Stanislaus.

When taking the six thoroughly frightened sailors back to St. Margaret's, Garriga asked how they managed to make themselves heard from such a distance, they replied that they counted to three, then all called for aid at the same moment.

The board of supervisors Friday morning adopted a resolution declaring the disputed road extending north from the Lower Bay road as public after careful examination of the road and consideration of affidavits presented by opponents and proponents of the issue.

It was noted that the road, property of Clyde Lachner, principal proponent, has been graded and generally improved in past years by county work crews, and that the road is kept in a condition to allow public use.

Cornelius J. Lachner, employed by the county as service officer for the Veterans Administration, appeared concerning accusations by others than board members that he had not fulfilled

Contract with Roy Keenan as private bus driver was approved for one year, the route being extended 104 miles per month at an additional price of $15 a month. Bus contracts with J. T. (Cont. on Page 7.)

Polly At Waveland

It's with less than our usual enthusiasm that we begin this week's column. . . Just can't seem to imagine writing anything without thinking of our very good friend and faithful reader, Douglas Bourgeois, who passed away last week. Despite a series of near fatal illnesses in recent years, he remained cheerful and interested in everything that went on under circumstances that would have felled a lesser man long ago. These few lines by Lord Byron seem so appropriate memorial and express our sentiments much better than anything we've been able to compose:

Farewell if ever fondest prayer
For others' weal avail'd on high.
Mine will not all be lost in air,
But wait thy name beyond the sky.
George Noel Gordon, Lord Byron.

The Summer Crowd Leaves

Summer residents are beginning to close homes for the season and return to their abodes in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Jackson and other cities. Mrs. Becky Allgeyer and daughter Mrs. Ed Gilly and family leave Monday. . . many others will remain until after Labor Day, which is one of the gayest holidays in our area. . . and that's pretty gay—someone once stated that in Waveland every night is Saturday night, and Saturday night, New Year's Eve. . . a slight exaggeration, but not too far off. Parties galore are scheduled for the weekend. . . Gerri and Sam Blanchard's annual barbeque is next Sunday as is a fillet mignon dinner at Winnie and Jack Helm's summer home. There'll be cookouts and picnics all over town Saturday, Sunday and Monday—and Tuesday a.m. will find everyone struggling reluctantly out of their beds at an unusually early hour to get the little darlings off to the first day of school.

It Was A Grand Opening

Saturday was a large day for local kiddies—Wayne Mack in his Great Mac Nutt guise attracted swarms of girls and boys and just about as many parents at Lipscomb's grand opening. . . Welcoming customers and guests were Shirley and Garry Lipscomb and their six offspring, Gerri's parents, Audrey and Wayne Davis, Jackie and Guy Buttin and daughter, Louise, Kate and Roy Saux. The building was cool all day until Mack's arrival—both doors remained open to accommodate lines waiting for autographed pictures, bubble gum, candy, perfume and to register for two Shetland ponies. After watching "The Great Mac Nutt" smile calmly as eager hordes pressed closer and closer, we concur with one observer who commented "I wouldn't have his job for $50 an hour" . . . Some bystanders included Nelson Boreland, Duke Hava and 11 children (not all his, we'll add), Ams Gayaut, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester LaFontaine, Shirley and Roland LaFontaine, Myrtle Hava and children, Lukie Boreland and girls, the Bennanates who own a summer home on Old Pecan Grove Lane in Waveland, the Steens Starttas who dashed home from Gulpport just so the younger children wouldn't miss the affair, Grace Boreland, Elaine Davis, Mabel, Tony and Denise Monti—even our old buddy, Mr. Ralph Mackey, deserved his flowers long enough to attend the opening.

When the last gift winner was announced, every child on the coast (at least) gifted with one or more of the above mentioned, Wayne, the Sauxes and Lipscombs dashed across the bridge for refreshments and nourishment. Pony winners were Ricky Stein of 202 Toulme and David Adams, Ulman Ave. Cindy Lodner was awarded a radio and the following went home with electric blenders—M. J. Stoufflet, R. G. Hoghouser, Sam Noto, Ivo Jensen, C. Bahon and Joe Lauff, Jr.

A belated happy anniversary wish goes to Effie and Jabe Yarbrough who observed their 32nd Friday, Aug. 24. . . Lots of birthdays too—Toby Piazza celebrated Sunday the 25th, Nettie Burleigh and Sam Boreland were feted by Elaine Davis Tuesday on their joint birthdays—August 28—which just happens to also be Doris and Cliff Vogt's wedding anniversary date. Mrs. James Robert is another with a birthday coming up—hers is Sept. 4.

The Ladies Go Fishing

Shirley and Ed Hawkins' beautiful yacht, the Amico, was the setting for a ladies only (16 of them, with the exception of Capt. Herb Peterson) all-day fishing expedition Thursday. Some braved skiffs and caught a good many speckled trout. . . Grace Boreland and Doris Klotz were champs—also rans' included Elaine Davis, Shirley, Carmel Lenfant and yours truly, who I'm ashamed to confess caught one small trout and two miserable cat fish. Belle Peterson, Gladys Baxter and Beulah Peterson caught several in the afternoon angling. Remaining on the boat to play canasta or just relax were Doris Wilday, Josie Herbig, Doris Vogt, Helen Boreland and Elaine Seimle. Some members of the group enjoyed the fruits of their labors at a fish fry at Lakeshore Country Club the following night.

Doris and Baldwin Wilday and Doris's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Seilen, entertained a large group at a delicious turkey dinner at their Central Ave. summer home Saturday night. The affair was actually an unveiling of the sumptuous pink bathroom Baldwin and Mr. Dan have labored so arduously on for the past couple of months—the result is quite breathtaking and was duly admired by all viewers.

Once in a while we've been about ready to slit the throat because our camera wasn't handy—one such instance was a couple of months ago when Agnew Moran took a Sunday spin on his bicycle nattily attired in knit sport shirt, plaid Bermuda shorts and sandals—and again Saturday when Jane Mollere was blithely caping a coat of armor to daughter Emily—while attending a wedding reception at the swank Prince Court—she flipped the visor and almost flipped herself when a dummy inside stared her in the eye—a pic of her expression at that particular moment would have been priceless.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Springer are quite proud of their granddaughter, seven year-old Bernice Springer who was awarded an impressive 22-inch silver trophy at the recent Lion's Club sponsored children's Fishing Rodeo in Long Beach. Bernice's prize fish, the largest caught by a girl, was a flounder.

ONE CENTURY — Mrs. Clara Halpin celebrated her 100th birthday Tuesday at her Booklet Street home when friends from along the Gulf Coast stopped by to wish her well. Dozens of greeting cards may be seen in the background. Born in Manchester, N. H., she moved to New Orleans in her youth and has lived here for the last 40 years. She has been widowed 60 years and has one son in Lafayette, La., and a daughter in Metairie.

Barbara and Jimmy Landry and son alternated between their respective mammas, Ann Shippey and Thelma Landry, on a weekend visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Doyle had as guests at their Necaise, St. Emma Mrs. Betty Cochran of San Antonio, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bonnett of New Orleans.

Gerri and Sam Blanchard are entertaining Gerri's cousin, Leah Lemkovitz, and roommates, Ann Jones of Houston, Texas, Gerri and Sam decided to entertain themselves Friday and lived it up in the Crescent City until the wee hours. . . must have been quite wee—the Playboy Club had closed before they arrived at that particular spot.

Keeping Yvonne and Eddie Virgilio hopping these days are their granddaughter Debbie Mullins and niece Susan Virgilio.

Two new families to welcome to Waveland this week—the Jerry James and six children Bob, Elaine, Ship, David, Chris and Jerry reside at 130 Sears Ave. Formerly from Seattle, Wash., Jerry

Maufrays Host Rehearsal Fete

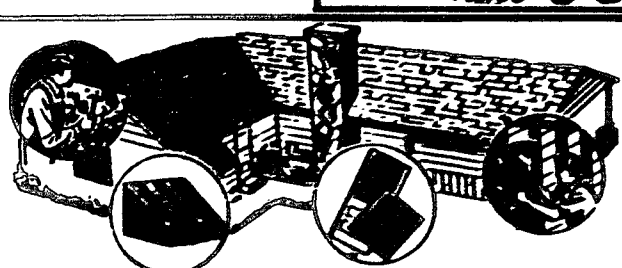

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Maufray will entertain at their North Beach home Saturday night in compliment to their niece, Miss Emilie Delph, and her fiancé, Joseph Larry Pressley, following the rehearsal for their wedding which will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pressley of Aberdeen will arrive at the weekend to attend their son's wedding, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Patsy Pressley, who will be a bridesmaid.

Miss Delph will entertain later in the week with a bridesmaids luncheon at the Broadwater Beach. Her fiancé is at the University of Mississippi today to receive his commission as an ensign in the Naval Reserve following a senior cruise with the Naval ROTC.

Teen Times

School days, school days—etc. . . just about the longest, hottest summer on record draws to a close as public school pupils register tomorrow, Friday, although vacation isn't officially over 'til Tuesday after Labor Day.

Many are already participating in pre-school activities. Lena Taylor, Miss Bay St. Louis, tried out for PRC's String of Pearls last week—Nita Kay Erwin, who was selected as one of the University of Southern Mississippi's marching brigade, plans to attend rush week at that institution of higher learning. Former Bay High star athlete, Bobby Van Caisem and Ronnie Peterson are working out with PRC's team. Lynn Rose and Margie Kempf leave for New Orleans and nursing careers early next month. Buddy Saux has also decided he'll attend Southern and leave for rush week Sept. 10.

Many members of the younger set who worked during the summer have discarded weekly paychecks for additional book learning—Jeanette Larroux and Jimmy Giametta, both former Bay employees, will attend Loyola (it's Jean's senior year) and Pearl River, respectively. Get well wishes go to Cathy Saux who came out a little worse for wear in an encounter with an ill-tempered horse Friday—she has a broken toe. . . younger brother Barry had his broken arm released from a cast the previous day. . . a fall from a horse was responsible for his fracture.

As football and little league baseball season draws to a close, we note that football practice has begun at Bay High and North Central. Tom and Tier Mayfield are among Wavelanders prepping at Bay High.

Jerome's defeated Mollere's to secure second place in girls' softball play—now they are slated to come up against undefeated OL G for the best two out of three games.

Sharon Ladner and Joy Peterson returned last Saturday after spending five days with Sharon's uncle in Port Arthur, Texas. It was quite a trip for the girls as they caught the train in Waveland and changed trains three times before arriving at their destination. When welcomed at the station by eager parents they almost went unrecognized as each had acquired a fake hair-piece in their absence.

Joe Ann and Pam Smith who incidentally have a brand new car (at least their parents do) spent the weekend with their grandparents in Natchitoches, La.

Jo Ann McCullough is another traveler—she's the guest of her grandmother in northern Mississippi.

Sue and Wardle Carroll (and family, naturally) are returning to Waveland to make their home. Jane Ferry, Carolyn Zeigler and Pat Fanning were also out-of-town over the weekend; Jane and Pat were in New Orleans, Carolyn, in Covington.

Mary Lou Herlihy had as weekend guests her cousin, Sally White, and friend Debbie. Edward Wyatt is presently spending an 18-day leave from the U. S. Marine Corps with his family.

Birthday greetings to Mary Lou Herlihy and Barbara Lennax. Mary Lou was 17, Barbara, 14, Saturday, Aug. 25.

Gene Ferry is a two-car man at the moment, not only is his hotrod wonder better known as "the grader" moving under its own power, his Cadillac convertible is also self propelled.

Some local boys attending drag races in Biloxi Sunday included Dennis Tartavouille, Eddie Jennings, Howard Carver, Jake Morreale, Larry Bilbo, James Wans and Hungry Exotics.

Carol Ann Bourgeois is helping out at Waveland Bakery during the summer months. . . older brother Terrill is employed at Sanitary Bakery in the Bay.

Dark Brunlike has a job and his own apartment in Gulfport. Brother Aaron has just returned from a vacation in Orange, Texas.

of friends are taking advantage of her convertible as one way to beat the heat.

Pat Murphy, Craig Johnson, Frank LaGarda, Mike Bold, (Frank's guest from Houston, Texas), and Lee deBenedetto, members of Boy Scout 208, camped out last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Murphy home under the supervision of Mr. L. S. Pahlman. Enjoying a fish fry with the group Friday night, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy, were Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Stechmann and Mr. and Mrs. Pahlman.

Barbara Ann Brown is having a wonderful time in the Crescent City where she is the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith. Judy Wilday is another who'll soon be applying for a driver's license—she'll be 15 on the 29th of this month.

Louis Grunz, Jr., obviously has NASA-ish ambitions. . . he had every intention of putting an especially purchased hamster in orbit via rocket—when his parachute device refused to work on a trial run, he promptly altered his plans, christened the small rodent Charlie and presented it to the little Mollere's.

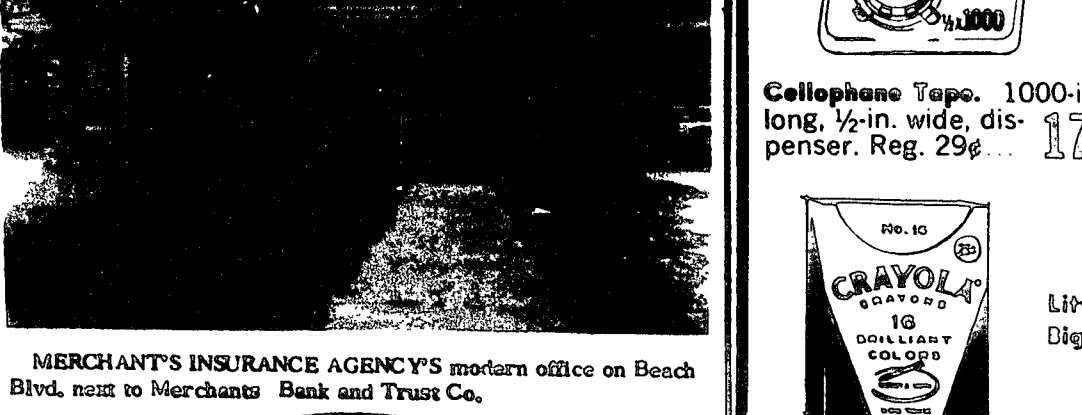

Mary Ann Pahlman has returned home after a week's visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bankston in New Orleans. Mary Ann is busily making preparations for entering the University of Southern Mississippi next month.

All of John Ladner's friends extend sympathy upon his recent knee injury.

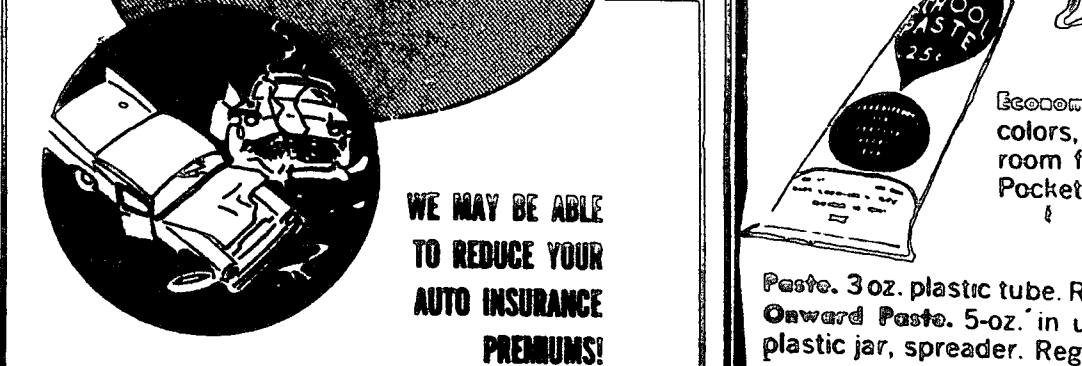

Miss Jean Boudreaux of New Orleans is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lytell.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Schmidt and daughter, Loretta, of New Orleans were weekend guests.

I'd like to welcome to our community Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wheeler, formerly of Vincennes, Ind., and their 16-year-old son, Bob. The Wheelers recently bought a home in Gainesville and had it moved here next to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Garcia. A TV repair shop to be manned by Mr. Wheeler has been built and opened for business.

Doris Mae Ladner Becomes Bride of Raymond Michel

A double ring ceremony at 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church united in marriage Miss Doris Mae Ladner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Leon Ladner, and Raymond J. Michel, son of Joseph R. Michel of Bay St. Louis, formerly of Ocean Springs, and the late Mrs. Michel.

Rev. Gerald Cleary officiated before the altar decked with arrangements of gladioli and pampas and flanked by palm.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a gown of white silk organza over tulle designed with a round neckline, fitted bodice and elbow length sleeves appliqued with French imported lace and re-embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. The train was attached at the back of the waist with a triple bow of organza and applied in the same design as the sleeves. Her coronet of lace leaves embroidered with seed pearls held in place the elbow length veil of Illusion. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and fleur d'amour centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Donald Ladner, matron of honor for her sister-in-law, was in aqua chiffon with a headpiece of flowers and matching accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. Michel was his son's best man and ushering were Donald Ladner, brother of the bride, and Jerry Beauges of Ocean Springs.

The bride's mother chose a gown of blue lace with matching accessories and a corsage of white fleur d'amour while the groom's stepmother was in a beige and brown ensemble with accessories and bronze pampas at the shoulder.

A reception followed at the parish hall. A lace cloth covered the bride's table with the wedding cake flanked by candelabra and surrounded with carnations, mums, and chrysanthemums. Mrs. George Hill of Clearmont Harbor, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake and tea girls were Misses Patsy Rescoe and Norma Jean Ladner.

For their wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride changed to a two-piece navy suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet at the shoulder. On their return the couple will reside on Delmonica Avenue.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Clifton of Jackson, Mrs. E. G. Hare, Misses Linda and Sheri Bayard, Mr. and Mrs. George Poltz, all of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leveaux, Mrs. Corinne Motina, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Forness and son, George, Robert A. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd R. Hughes and daughter, Catherine and Wanda, Mrs. Albert Burns, all of Biloxi; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beauges, Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Palfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gessert, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb, all of Ocean Springs, and Mrs. J. J. Harman of Gulfport.

Visiting her mother Mrs. Anthony Benveniste Thursday and Friday, were Betty Prett, husband Anthony and children Anthony, III, Rhonda, Randall and Donald. Gladys (Mrs. Lemar) Bassett of Mobile spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cepchen—while in the Bay she attended the Holy Name picnic at Cus's pool. Teddie and Lawrence Jacobl are missing the only real diversion from their one-day bakery week—they used to skip away for a few restful hours of fishing but their boat's been in dry dock for the past two months. It's good to see Lloyd Cunningham looking fit on a little once more. Shirley Dumphy took a couple of days off mending patients to relax in the Crescent City last week. She really needed the rest—Hancock General has been a busy, busy institution.

North Bay Elementary pupils will be happy to learn that two of their favorite teachers won't return this year—Mrs. Aline Schuler, recuperating from a slight heart attack, has accepted a teaching position in Piquette where she recently purchased a brand new home and Mrs. Frances Bryant has moved to Gulfport to teach. Speaking of teaching, Helene and Lambert Boyd will keep it in the family as both are to be at Christ Episcopal.

Like Money In The Bank

It is gratifying to those of us who have lived long enough to have seen the virgin forests of South Mississippi denuded to see our cut over lands growing trees again. Climate, sunshine and rain, with a little added help, have replenished what men once harvested and sometimes even destroyed.

At one time the economy of South Mississippi was primarily based on the manufacture of lumber and the distillation of turpentine. And forests still provide approximately 25% of the gross income of Mississippians. In 1959, the last year of which we have a record, the state produced $540,000,000 worth of forest products. A total of 17,000,000 acres, 57% of the state's area, is in reforestation. Trees are our major crop.

A generation ago, timber was processed almost wholly into lumber, much of which was wasted. In the meantime, the strides of research and experimentation have discovered so many added uses that 4,000 products today are made from wood fibers and wood chemicals. Among these products are newsprint and other papers, cellophane, plastics, insulation, lacquers, photograph film, shotgun shells, fabrics for clothing, boxes and cartons.

And with all the tremendous progress that has been made in the harvesting and processing of trees, it is estimated that Mississippi has reached only one-third of its potential in growing trees and converting this major crop into new wealth.

This has been a fantastic development. The virgin forests vanished, but Mississippi now grows trees faster than they are being harvested.

Money does not grow on trees but the prosperity of South Mississippi, originally produced by its forests, can continue indefinitely with scientific reforestation and by the vigilance of a people making the most of what nature has provided for us in such abundance.

Money invested in the planting, growing and harvesting of trees is like money in the bank. It bears compound interest over and over. Trees reproduce themselves — trees are eternal.

L & N Booboo

Elsewhere on this page is printed in full L&N's President William H. Kendall's letter to the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce. From it our readers can draw their own conclusion, but we would like to comment on several of Mr. Kendall's sentences.

Mr. Kendall states "The sad thing about a commuter's service is that the situation would not be alleviated by carrying more passengers". On its face this statement is incorrect.

Mr. Kendall further points to the fact that our New Orleans commuters, trains Nos. 9 and 12, operate at a substantial loss. So what? The front page of every newspaper in this country operates at a loss. The newspaper hopes to receive sufficient advertising revenue on its interior pages to more than cover its loss on the front page.

Because of the first amendment to the United States Constitution newspapers, along with other mass media, have a slightly preferred position. Under our law the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company has a decidedly preferred position — it has the right of eminent domain, meaning it can take your property whether you want to sell it or not. While regulated as to rates all railroads lose money on their passenger service just as newspapers do on their front page. Equally, all railroads make up such losses on their freight business. In this respect Mr. Kendall misleads throughout his letter.

By and large the railroads of this country receive whatever good publicity they receive from the county weekly newspaper — the grassroots. — but when they try to fool the grassroots' editors they pull a big booboo, and that applies to the hands of the biggest of corporations. The L&N doesn't class with the biggest.

Our own personal opinion based on Mr. Kendall's letter of Aug. '0 is that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company does not want even one more passenger on its trains Nos. 9 and 12 because such would reduce the possibility of removal from service of those trains.

While railroads in general pay their way compared to their competitors, whether air line, bus or water, they have an obligation to furnish adequate, at the minimum, passenger service as long as they have a monopoly on rail freight. The L&N had better remember this.

Stupid, Stupid!

This paper has previously commented on the recent United States Supreme Court's decision in which the majority of the court held that everybody's vote had to be equal in numerical value. For more than a century this same judicial body had repeatedly ruled that such questions were political in nature and consequently were not justiciable (not a question for the courts to decide but for the legislature to decide).

We still think the Warren Court pulled a booboo. We are equally conscious that almost every one of our 50 states pack their legislatures from rural areas. In many cases we have thanked our lucky stars that the rural population in essence ran the state legislature.

Since the decision by the United States Supreme Court, two United States Circuit Courts of Appeal have implemented our highest tribunal's ruling. Both in Georgia and Alabama, no Southern as Mississippi, the Courts ruled that everybody's vote, give or take a few percentage points, should be equal.

Now a Mississippi judge following the edict of our highest court has ordered redistricting of this state. In view of the decision by the United States Supreme Court we believe Chancellor William T. Horton had no choice.

We equally believe that the joint committee of the legislature failed to recognize in honesty its responsibility. It is conceivable that their recommendation of one senator from each county meets the requirements of the United States Supreme Court. However, since a county is merely a subdivision of a state as distinguished from the sovereign concept of our states, it is possible that even this provision could be classed unconstitutional.

The proposed make-up of Mississippi's lower legislative body as recommended by the joint committee in no way antitheses the theory behind the United States Supreme Court's decision nor does it in any degree conform with either of the U. S. Circuit Courts of Appeal's delineation of political practice. In addition, their recommendation openly violates the mandate of Chancellor Horton.

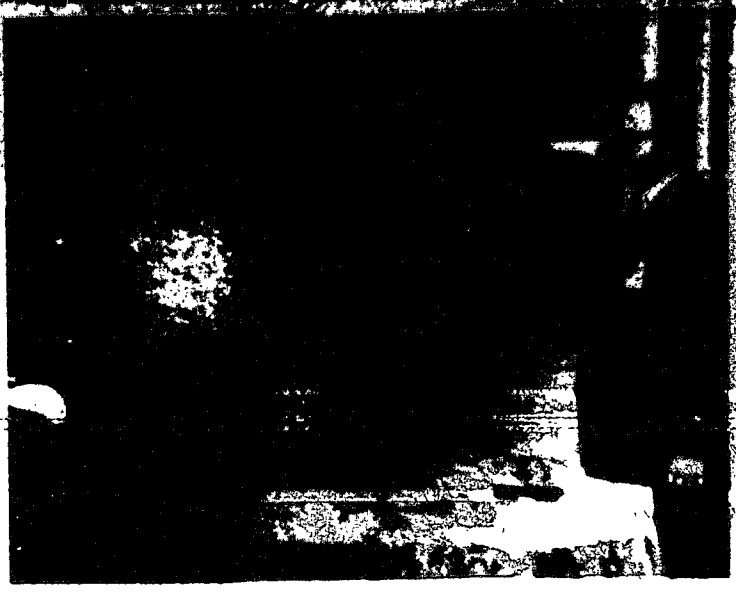

How stupid can our legislators be?

Kendall's Letter

I have received your letter regarding the possibility of having the Coast commuter train stop at the Michoud plant, traveling both east and west, to pick up and discharge passengers. I regret to say that our present commuter trains would not accommodate a great increase of additional passengers, and we could not justify purchasing new or additional equipment to add to these trains. These trains constitute a financial burden for us. For several years we have lost large sums of money on these commuter trains, and we are confronted with a problem of having to make some adjustments in this service to reduce the losses we are now incurring. As an example, in 1951, alone, the out-of-pocket losses on these trains, Nos. 9 and 12, amounted to $64,734.00.

The sad thing about a commuter service is that the situation would not be alleviated by carrying more passengers. The principal reason for this is that the commuter trains are generally used only in the mornings and evenings, usually just one round trip per set of equipment, and the rest of the day the trains and crew stand idle, but the cost of the crews and maintenance of equipment go on and on. Additionally, commuter fares are so low that they fall far short of covering the cost of performing the service. In other words an additional fare doesn't compensate for the additional cost for additional seats, cars, crews, services, etc., therefore the loss increases with the service performed.

It had been previously suggested that we operate a commuter train in connection with the Michoud plant, but upon checking with Michoud authorities they reported they were not interested in underwriting such a train, and further that our main line is too far away from the plant for passenger service to be used effectively, and also that a survey indicated that only one employee out of those that were contacted in the NASA organization had expressed any interest in public transportation.

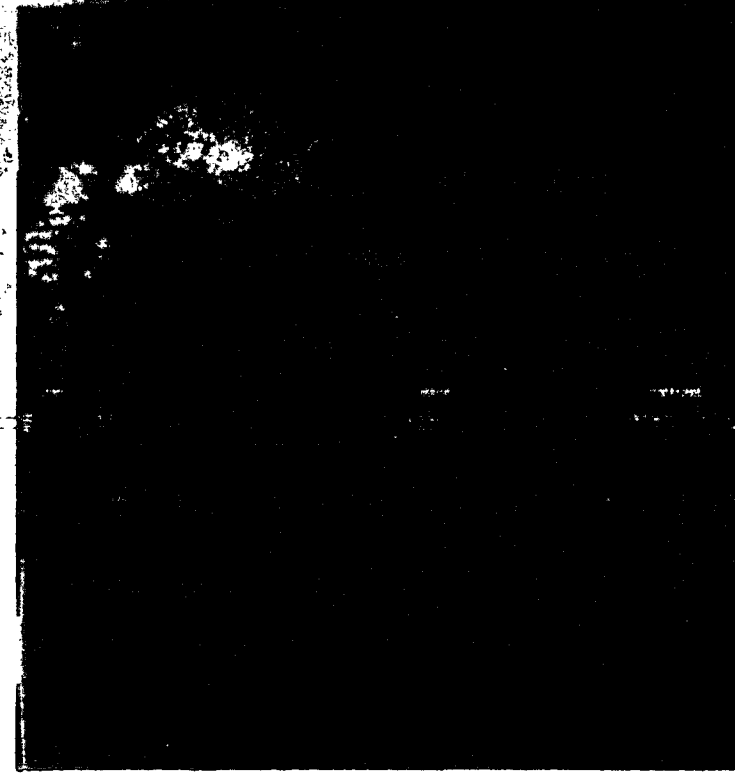

Under the circumstances, as our present commuter service incurs a serious financial loss and as this loss would not be materially decreased by additional service, we could not agree to attempt to take care of the problem with our existing service, nor to add additional services except on a cost-plus basis.

Yours very truly,
William H. Kendall
President

J. S. Price, principal of Valena C. Jones School in the Bay St. Louis municipal district, inquired about using a small county-owned bus to take his football players home after practice if he furnished a driver, oil and gas. He said day-time practices sessions were not feasible.

Board President Charles B. Murphy expressed concern about setting a precedent by granting such permission and McCarty eased the solution by reporting no bus was available. He added that when the new buses ordered by the county arrive, one of the older ones might be purchased by the city for a nominal sum.

A raft of additional bills from 1960-61 from North Central were received and held for study.

Those born between Aug. 23 and Sept. 22 are under the zodiac sign of Virgo. They have as their birthstone the opal and possess a personality as colorful as the stone itself. Broussard the 15th; Kathleen Becker and Certe E. Diboll, the 17th - Happy Birthday to all.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Richmond of Clarendon Blvd. had as weekend guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richmond and their children Sheryl and Little Avri, now three months old, whose race by stark beat grandmother Rose to Touro by and hour or two. Recent guests of the J. C. Goodloes of Forest Ave. were their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vicknair of Venice, La. with their children Michele and Robbie; and at present another daughter and son-in-law, the Robert Treddaway of Gretna, La., are visiting them, with sons Kirk and Russell.

Club Meetings Resume

The Blue Jeans Garden Club will hold its first meeting of the season at the Forest St. home of Mrs. Vivian Summa at 2 p.m. Monday, Sept. 17. The Home Demonstration Club will hold its September meeting at the home of Mrs. Russell Kintzley Monday Sept. 10.

The William Shaeffers on Bordages St. have just completed an addition to their enclosed patio playroom in time for their annual Labor Day barbecue and all-day picnic. The Irvin Olesens on Oak St. also planned that their Labor Day picnic will be on Sunday preceding to allow the participants time to relax before returning to work Tuesday. A sensible thing for all holiday revelers to do. Rosemary Hunsinger drove over from Waveland with a casserole of chicken and noodles, salad and dessert Saturday when she phoned and I made the remark I wasn't cooking that day. She is a wonderful cook. Honore Hughes brought me a carton of the most delicious gumbo and Ruth Landry sent me three beautiful stuffed crabs recently - where is there is my diet?

Belated birthday wishes to Susie Yost, who celebrated her birthday on Aug. 22 with a few friends in for cake and ice cream and a dip in her pool. Sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Sylvia Yost on the death of her 91-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Susan Gombler, who passed away recently in New Orleans.

In the Wilds of Michigan

Mrs. H. A. Sears of Houston, Texas, drove over with her granddaughter, Sherry, and set off on a vacation trip with her sister and brother-in-law, the J. C. Goodloes, to visit with their niece and nephew, Lt. and Mrs. W. A. Smith at Kincheloe Air Base, Mich. almost isolated by a primeval forest of fire trees and hundreds of lakes on which wild water fowl glide through the water almost as blue as the sky above, completely undisturbed by the roar of the planes overhead. There are signs along the dense forest warning motorists not to enter the forest because of the many wild animals and bears - a primitive country undisturbed by man, except for motor cars and the army planes. It is right at the Canadian border, which they crossed on a sightseeing trip. Mrs. Sears is a seasoned driver, has visited most of our states and she drives their car when she and Mr. Sears are on business trips in Europe. On their way home they visited Mammoth Cave, Lookout Mt., enjoyed the beauty of the Cumberland and Smoky Mts. and stopped off for a visit with relatives and friends in Brevton, Ala., where their mother, formerly a Miss Brevton, was reared. They made a short stop with friends in Mobile before coming back to the Miss. Gulf Coast.

It is nice to see Mrs. Garcia's daughter, Vertie, back at the grocery. Her bout with high blood pressure has about corrected itself and the shining crystal clear candy jars and uncluttered counter show she has regained her usual vim and vigor.

black straw crown hat with a nose-length veil and black patent accessories. She pinned the orchid from her wedding bouquet at the shoulder. On their return they will be at home at 1908 Prytanis St., New Orleans.

Mrs. Cuevas is a graduate of East Jefferson High School and attended Louisiana State University in New Orleans. Mr. Cuevas, a graduate of St. Stanislaus College, served three years with the paratroopers and received his BBA degree from the University of Mississippi where he was affiliated with Kappa Sigma social fraternity. He is presently with Curtis Circulation Co. in New Orleans.

Miss Eleanore Connell Wed to Milton Cuevas

Sockets of white carnations and vases of white asters banked the altar of St. Francis Cabrini Church in New Orleans for the wedding at 10 a.m. Aug. 18 of Miss Eleanore Kathleen Connell, daughter of Thomas Francis Connell of Metairie, La., and the late Mrs. Connell, to Milton Joseph Cuevas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Frank Cuevas of Bay St. Louis. Rev. Msgr. Gerard Froy performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's gown was fashioned with a white Chantilly lace bodice, scalloped elbow length sleeves and a white peau de sole ball-shaped skirt. Her three-tiered veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of a dozen white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Barbara Stansbury of Metairie, maid of honor, was in a crimson crepe dress with a fitted bodice and slightly flared skirt. Her headpiece was a crimson nose veil and her bouquet one white cabbage rose.

Monroe Frank Cuevas, Jr., of Ocean Springs was best man for his brother while William Boyd Jacks of New Orleans and Donald Alphonse Cuevas of Bay St. Louis, another brother, ushered.

A reception followed at the home of J. V. Morreale in Gentilly Oaks where the groom had resided.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., the bride was wearing a moss green silk shantung suit dress,

NURSING GRADUATE - N Nerie Ann Sones of Bay St. Louis was among 66 students at Charity Hospital School of Nursing in New Orleans to receive diplomas upon completion of the three-year course Wednesday night. YC Closes With 21st Victory

Youth Center closed out the 1962 Pony League regular season Saturday with a 5-2 victory over Fabey Drug, their 21st consecutive victory after a defeat in the season's opening game. The Sea Coast Echo Scoops drove Sunny Signs 18-13 in a free-swinging nightcap. Leslie Blaine rapped three base hits, one a double, to pace Youth Center. Vincent Carver and John Shattuck both closed doubles to add to the attack, and Joe Ziegler came through with a single. The winners scored four runs in the third and one in the fourth. Fabey's Jerry Thomas collected his team's only hit, a last inning two-base blow.

Ross Marzetti, Gary Neo and Joemy Collier pitched for Youth Center, while Mike Strong hurled for Fabey. Although getting only one hit, Fabey batters were granted ten bases-on-balls, and one batter was hit by a pitch. The losing nine outplayed nine men on the bases.

The Scoops, in the second game, scored nine runs in the top of the fifth and final inning to break a 9-9 tie, then staved off a Sunny rally in the bottom half for their 18-13 win.

The Echo squad made only six hits, all singles, but errors and walks were costly to Sunny. Ray Childs pitched two singles, and Chippy Henry, Chuck Wagner, Larry Johnson, and Jimmy Leticano all had one hit apiece. Sunny also made six safeties. Andy Ramage had three singles, and Tommy Humphreys, Billy Thomas, and Ned Heath collected one hit.

Chuck Wagner was the winning pitcher, Dean Taylor the loser. Youth Center finished the season with a 21-1 record, and their

Tennis Tourney Set Saturday

The annual Parks and Playgrounds tennis tournament, closing out summer net classes, will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, according to Mrs. Odile Carter, instructor.

The all-day tourney, to be in three separate divisions, will be for tennis class members only. Each match will be the best two-out-of-three games with the possibility that the final matches in each division might run a full set.

nearest competitors, Fabey Drug, won only ten games.

Biloxi Sports Head Is Banquet Speaker

Donal M. Snyder, director of the Biloxi Recreation Department, was guest speaker Monday night at a banquet honoring Little League and Pony League teams at Haverly's Restaurant in Waveland attended by 160 persons.

Neilus Favre, master of ceremonies for the occasion, introduced the speaker who talked to the future major leaguers on the subject of what it means to be a Little League and pony leaguer, and about those leagues and other boys' leagues found in many cities today. Snyder emphasized the point that the leagues' purpose is to teach good sportsmanship and the proper rules of baseball, but that some players, and many parents as well, take the games too seriously, and are therefore ruining the good intentions of the game. He noted one city in Texas, one of our nation's largest towns, where Little League ball had to be banned because of such reasons.

Certificates of merit were presented to Little League players at the banquet. Attending, in addition to players and managers, were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Genin, representing Cue Oil; Mr. and Mrs. Monteiro, Industrial Electric; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Whitfield, Ken's Little Diggers; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Landrum, 7-Up Bottling of Gulfport; Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Glover, Youth Center; Mr. and Mrs. William Redo, Mrs. Sylvan Ladner, and Rev. Michael Kelly, special guests.

One Repeat Wins This Year

Electric and Reagin's met last night in the fourth of the best three-out-of-five championship Bay Softball League playoff, Industrial Electric's victory to remain in contention for the completion of the softball season, Little League players' Softball playoffs, the summer sports season.

The champions this summer it was a banner year. For the first time in the history of the league, the team which didn't win last year, won it this year.

Reagin's won the Bay Softball playoff title last year, after having secured regular season honors. Southern Realty took the championship this summer, but were knocked from the playoffs by Industrial Electric, a team which wasn't even in the league last season. No matter who wins in this year's playoffs, a new champ will be crowned.

It was the playoff championship in the women's league last year that didn't win the regular league title. This season, they won the league title, going undefeated, and should claim the playoffs as well.

Center, last by a mile in the Pony League last season, won twice as many games as any other team this year. The year's leaders, the Sea Coast Echo Scoops, fell to a disappointing. Youth Center's performance is perhaps the best of any team. The entire squad, Leslie Blaize, Johnny Jameson, Danny Kramky, Ross Maurig, Vincent Cuevas, Jeomy, Danny Weidmann, Benny Starita, Joe Ziegler, John Statton, Larry Jacob, and their coaches, Charley Tartavouille and Danny Kramky, deserve plenty of credit.

Let's Little Diggers came from behind to win the Little League championship, with 7-Up a close second. The Junior Sheriff, who ran away with the title in 1961 were third, and Coast Electric barely beat the Old Coast Express for fourth, winning the playoff position by a point.

Only Schedule Is Too Long

Looking back on the season, it has to be considered a big success. Many improvements were made, and the only thing we see that needs to be changed next summer is the lengthy schedule. This year, the league schedule called for 24 games for each team, and the Little League card for 21 games, in addition to playoffs. A 12-game season seems to us to be more within reason. Although the boys seem to like the game, most would like two or three weeks off.

Regarding the softball picture for one last moment, Industrial Electric would have almost needed a miracle to win last year. Three or four of their top players left with the V and M. The team of Pess Christian to represent Mississippi in the World Softball Tournament in Toledo, Ohio next week. Although V and M didn't win the state crown, they were runners-up and will make the trip. Last season, the same club, with Industrial player, Paul Pavolini as manager, also went to the World tourney.

Industrial knew they needed to win Monday's playoff game and the one-game lead to have much of a chance, and it must have been encouraging to hit as hard as they did yet hit right at Reinike's hand.

Then There's Sailing, Tennis

Although the baseball seasons are coming to a close, there are many of local sports activities going on in the area. One of the year's top sailing events, the GYA Lipton Cup, will be Saturday, Sunday, and Monday at Biloxi Yacht Club. Jack Gordon, Dick Reeves, Bill Reeves, and Harry Chapman will represent the local club against nearly all the Gulf Yachting Association member clubs.

Tennis fans can attend the Parks and Playgrounds tennis tournament Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. at the City Hall courts. Better looking facilities have been added to the courts, but barring some very long and close matches, the lights will not be needed Saturday. Mr. Otis Carter, who has taught young people the fundamentals of the game all summer, expects a large field of competitors.

St. Stanislaus opened football practice sessions Wednesday, and grid fans wishing a preview look at area football prospects can attend either the Rockchaw practice sessions, staged twice daily at 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. near the school, the Bay High Tiger practice late each afternoon at either City Ball Park or the North City field, or the North Central team warm-ups each afternoon at North Central School.

Rebels Don't Top Polls

We, like all football fans, have been interested in noting all the various football predictions made via different sports media recently. The big surprise, to us, is the fact that the Ole Miss Rebels haven't been highly rated in hardly any of the polls.

Look sports editor Tim Cokane, a veteran of the prediction wars, says Ole State as the team to beat, with L. S. U. second. Cokane expects the Tigers to win all their games except the Kentucky contest, and has L. S. U. beating Duke in the Sugar Bowl. Alabama is picked fifth by Cokane, Georgia Tech seventh, and Ole Miss eighth. Among the Southeastern Conference four of the top eight squads in the country. Oddly enough, the Big Ten controls three of the other five positions. Tennessee is rated 18th by the Look writer.

Coch Paul (Bear) Bryant of defending national champ Alabama picks Georgia Tech as the team to beat in this week's magazine. Bryant rates L. S. U. to be Tech's stiffest competition. Nationally Tech and L. S. U. will play on nationwide television and this year the college games will be carried by CBS - Channels 2 and 5 and picks Tennessee as another powerhouse. He didn't mention Ole Miss among his best teams, and naturally, to avoid putting himself on the spot, nothing was said about his Alabama team.

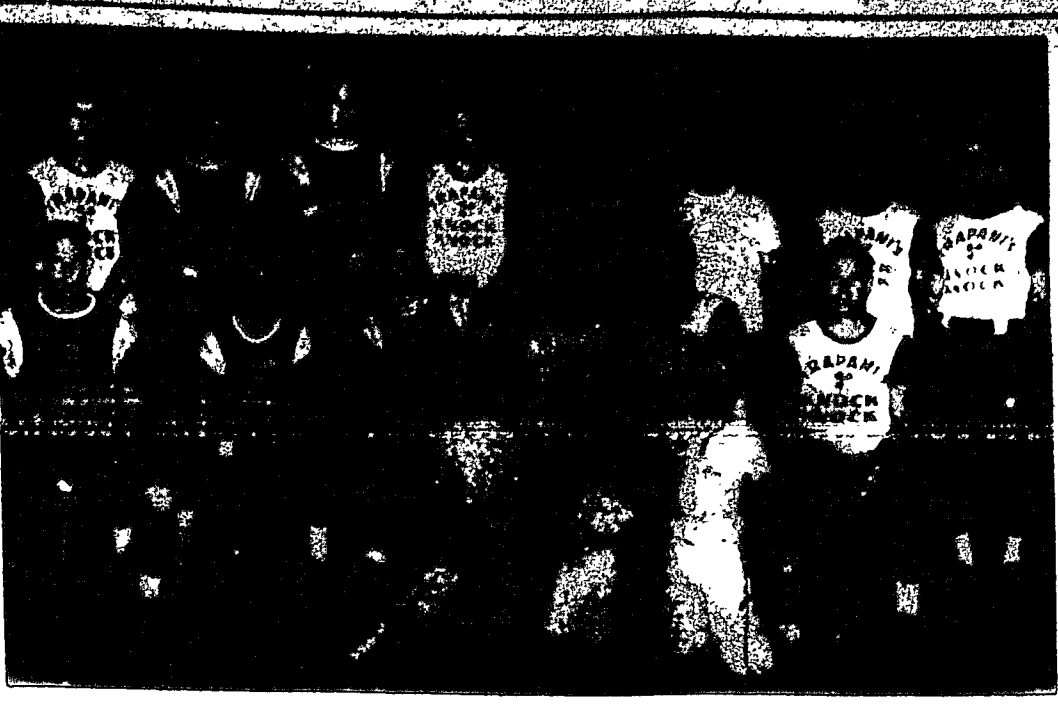

Street and Smith's annual football yearbook has plenty to say about 'Bama, though. That magazine rates Bryant's crew the top team for the second straight year. L. S. U. is picked to finish fifth, and again, there is nothing said about Ole Miss.

The Street and Smith guide, though, one of the major pre-season football annuals, includes mention of Mississippi State Black J. E. Loiacano of Bay St. Louis, noting that he and three other junior college transfers are expected to add strength to the Hula backfield.

Traps Lead Consolation

Excellent pitching by Charlie Carter, hurling the first shutout of the season, enabled Reinike's Dirt Diggers to take a 2-1 lead over Industrial Electric Monday night in the championship Bay Softball League playoff winning 5-0. Trapani's want one-up in their consolation series with Southern Realty.

It was a frustrating night for Industrial Electric. They hit line drive after line drive, but everything was hit right into a fielder's hand. Carter was stringy all night with men on base, stranding eight Industrial base-runners, while spacing ten hits in good fashion.

Reinike took a 3-0 lead with a run in the second and two in the third, then added single markers in the sixth and seventh frames to sew up the victory. Industrial put men on the base paths in almost every frame but couldn't get anyone further than third.

Buddy Pitalo, Gene Tarzetti, Vernon Bermond and Bobby Fayard all went 2-3 at the plate for the winners who collected ten hits off the pitching of losing moundman Red Davis. Fred Scarborough, Billy Murphy and Larry Favre had two hits in three bats for Industrial.

Carter was also the master of the Industrial batsmen Friday night in the series' second contest, after Reinike's had dropped the opening game. The Diggers won 7-1, and the losing squad could muster only seven safe hits.

Vernon Bermond, Billy Osborne and Herman Blackwell all had two hits to pace the winning attack. A pair of brothers, Donald and Stacky Strong, collected over half the Industrial safeties, both going 2-3. Carter was the winning pitcher, Davis the loser.

Wednesday's series opener found Industrial prevailing 5-1, as Red Davis's good pitching was backed by a 12-hit attack. Billy Murphy was 3-3, and Gus Alme, Stacky Strong and Fred Scarborough 2-3, all for the winners. Losing pitcher Carter was 2-3 for Reinike's, as were Buck Kimball and J. V. Morrales.

Trapani's want ahead of Southern Realty Monday night in the consolation series, winning 7-6 when they pushed across two unearned runs in the seventh inning. Southern Realty, regular season champs but losers to Industrial in the semifinal playoffs last week, led all the way until the final frame, when the Traps pulled it out.

Herman Yarborough was 2-2, and Dan Seucker and Clayton Adams 2-3 for Trapani. Bill Watts had 3-4 for Southern Realty, and Jimmy Larroux and Cecil Ladner were 2-3. Claude Yarborough was the winning pitcher and Dan Caldwell the loser. Southern Realty rapped 18 base hits in winning Monday's consolation game 13-6. James Ginn, Jim Mayfield and Dan Caldwell all had two hits for the winners, and Claude Yarborough and J. D. Peterson were 2-3 in a losing cause. Caldwell was the winner, Yarborough the loser on the mound.

Wednesday night in the first game of the series, Southern Realty fell 6-4 gathering but seven hits. Included in the Traps 14-hit barrage was a 4-4 output by Ronnie Ardigues, a 3-4 performance by Henry Monti, and Herman Yarborough's 2-3 night's work. Bill Richards and Charley Tartavouille were the only Southern Realty players getting more than one hit, each going 2-3.

The playoffs continued last night, and wins by Trapani and Reinike would have meant victory in the two best-three-out-of-five series. If needed, deciding games will be staged Friday night.

Ken's Trip Lawmen For Playoff Title

Ken's Little Diggers added to their list of credits this season, winning their second straight victory over the Junior Sheriffs 3-1 Tuesday afternoon.

Ken's caught the usually hard-hitting Sheriffs on a bad day, as the only run the lawmen scored was sheered when Ed Payari, on first base, stole second and came home when the throw to the base went into centerfield.

Larry Gagnon singled home Don Lader with the winning run in the sixth inning Monday afternoon as Ken's defeated the Junior Sheriffs 2-1 to take a one-game lead in their best two-out-of-three series.

The Diggers, regular season champs of the league, winners of two tournaments, and losers of only two games, were matched hit-to-hit as well as run-to-run by the upset-minded Sheriffs until the last of the sixth when Lader's single was followed by the Gagnon hit which broke the game open. Edmond Schindler had given Ken's a 1-0 lead in the third with a solo home run, but Sylvan Lader's round tripper erased that marker.

Ken's advanced to the finals with a 17-6 win over the Coast Electric-Kids Friday afternoon in a one-game semifinal playoff, while the Junior Sheriffs reached the championship round by upsetting regular league runner-up 7-Up 4-1.

Ken's blasted two home runs and three triples against Coast Electric, collecting ten hits in all. The Diggers scored 11 runs in the top of the first before Coast Electric had a turn at the plate.

Larry Gagnon and Randle Schindler hit home runs for the winners, Gagnon adding a single to his day's work. Carver hit a triple and two singles, Dick Lader smashed two triples, and Bert Chevis rapped a pair of singles, all for Ken's. Greg Pressnell hit a triple for Coast Electric, and Jay Warner had the only other hit, a single.

7-Up's heavy hitters had an off night in the game against the Junior Sheriffs, as a single by Jackie Strong turned out to be the only hit for the losers. The lawmen scored three runs in the first inning and that proved to be enough. The Sheriffs came up with an insurance run in the third, and 7-Up then came back in the last of the third to score their only tally of the game.

The league's regular season closed last Wednesday when Ken's whipped Gulf Coast Express 14-4 and 7-Up edged the Junior Sheriffs 4-3.

7-Up had to go into extra innings to defeat the Junior Sheriffs Friday, winning on a single by Perry Stephens, a walk, and a better hit by a pitch in the sixth inning. Stephens and Jackie Strong had the game's only hits.

Herbie Choina and Larry Gagnon led Ken's with 2-4 in their victory over Gulf Coast Express, and Carver and Don Lader chipped in with one hit each. Gulf Coast Express, though scoring only four runs, actually hit harder than the winners. M. Boudreau and D. Waite both had solid home runs, B. Helms collected two singles, and Schuyt also had a single.

Bay Knot Team Finishes Fourth In Pass Event

Biloxi Yacht Club skipperettes sailed to three straight victories to win the annual Knot Regatta last weekend at Pass Christian Yacht Club. Bay-Waveland Yacht Club's team of Betty Ann Gordon, Ann Schiefel and Ann Clark finished a highly-respectable fourth behind Biloxi, Pensacola and Gulfport.

Bay-Waveland got off to a bad start in the 11-club three-race event, finishing tenth in Saturday's opening race. The locals finished high in both of Sunday's races, however, winding up third in the final race when they claimed foul against winning Southern Yacht Club and the protest was upheld.

Other clubs behind Bay-Waveland in their finishing order were: Pass Christian, Mobile, Fairhope, Fort Walton, Southern YC of New Orleans, St. Andrews Bay, and New Orleans Yacht Club.

The annual Lipton Cup championships are slated for this weekend at Biloxi Yacht Club, matching the top skippers from various area yacht clubs. Dick Reeves, Bill Reeves, Jack Gordon and Harry Chapman all BWYC representatives. Races will be staged Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Labor Day.
